The Faithfulness Audit

30 Small Areas That Shape a Life

Based on Luke 16:10

Jesus teaches that the way we handle little things reveals how we will handle much. Faithfulness is rarely built in one dramatic moment. It grows through small choices repeated over time. This resource will help you slow down, examine several areas of your life, and identify one practical step of obedience.

Grace Before Growth

This is not a test of whether God loves you. We are saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. This reflection is simply a tool to help you notice where God may be calling you to greater faithfulness.

HOW TO USE THIS AUDIT: Rate each statement honestly

Write a number from 1 to 5 beside each statement. Add the section totals, review the patterns you notice, and choose one small next step. The goal is not a perfect score. The goal is honest reflection and faithful growth.

5	4	3	2	1
Consistently true	Usually true	Often true	Sometimes true	Rarely true

A Prayer Before You Begin

Father, thank You for Your patience, mercy, and faithfulness toward me. As I work through this audit, help me be honest without becoming discouraged and humble without becoming ashamed. Show me the areas where You are already helping me grow, and gently reveal the places where I have become careless, distracted, or slow to obey.

Give me wisdom to recognize what needs my attention and courage to respond. Remind me that this is not about earning Your love or proving my worth. I am saved by Your grace through faith in Jesus Christ. Help me receive Your correction as an invitation to grow, and lead me toward one clear, faithful step at a time. In Jesus' name, amen.

PART ONE Faithfulness in My Walk With God

Notice the small practices that keep your heart open to God.

Statement	1–5
1. I make regular time to pray.	_____
2. I spend time reading and reflecting on Scripture.	_____
3. I obey what I already understand God is asking me to do.	_____
4. I confess sin rather than continually excusing it.	_____
5. I seek God before making important decisions.	_____
6. I continue walking with God even when I do not feel spiritually motivated.	_____
SECTION TOTAL	_____/30

REFLECT

Where am I showing faithfulness in my walk with God?

Where may God be calling me to grow?

PART TWO Faithfulness With My Words

Consider what your everyday speech reveals and produces.

Statement	1-5
7. I tell the truth, even when dishonesty would be easier.	_____
8. I keep the promises and commitments I make.	_____
9. I avoid gossip and careless talk about others.	_____
10. I apologize when my words cause harm.	_____
11. I use my words to encourage rather than tear down.	_____
12. I pause before speaking when I am angry or frustrated.	_____
SECTION TOTAL	_____ /30

REFLECT

Which speaking habit most needs my attention?

What could greater faithfulness with my words look like this week?

PART THREE Faithfulness With My Responsibilities

Pay attention to how you handle what has already been entrusted to you.

Statement	1-5
13. I complete the work I agree to do.	_____
14. I give honest effort, even when no one is watching.	_____
15. I arrive prepared when others are depending on me.	_____
16. I take responsibility for mistakes rather than blaming others.	_____
17. I care for what God has already placed in my hands.	_____
18. I handle small assignments with the same integrity I would give larger ones.	_____
SECTION TOTAL	_____/30

REFLECT

What responsibility have I been treating as unimportant?

What would it look like to handle it faithfully?

PART FOUR Faithfulness in My Relationships

Look at how consistency, service, and honesty shape your relationships.

Statement	1–5
19. I make time for the people God has placed in my life.	_____
20. I listen carefully instead of always preparing my response.	_____
21. I encourage people who may feel forgotten.	_____
22. I forgive rather than continually feeding resentment.	_____
23. I serve others without always needing recognition.	_____
24. I address conflict honestly and respectfully.	_____
SECTION TOTAL	_____/30

REFLECT

Who may need greater faithfulness from me right now?

What is one action I can take?

PART FIVE Faithfulness With My Time, Money, and Habits

Consider the repeated choices that are quietly shaping your direction.

Statement	1–5
25. I use my time intentionally rather than allowing distractions to control it.	_____
26. I handle money with honesty, wisdom, and self-control.	_____
27. I practice generosity with what God has given me.	_____
28. I recognize habits that are crowding God out of my life.	_____
29. I resist small compromises before they grow.	_____
30. I am willing to remove something that is weakening my walk with Christ.	_____
SECTION TOTAL	_____ / 30

REFLECT

What habit is shaping me most right now?

Is it leading me toward greater faithfulness or away from it?

YOUR RESULTS What your scores may reveal
Walk With God	_____ / 30
Words	_____ / 30
Responsibilities	_____ / 30
Relationships	_____ / 30
Time, Money, and Habits	_____ / 30
TOTAL SCORE	_____ / 150

Your score is not a spiritual grade. A high score does not mean you have arrived. A low score does not mean you have failed beyond repair. Use your results to notice patterns, celebrate growth, and identify where God may be inviting you to take a clearer step of obedience.

One area where I am growing:

One area I have been overlooking:

One repeated choice that is shaping my character:

One small compromise I need to confront:

FAITHFULNESS ACTION PLAN

What Is Your One Olive?

Choose one small change that may matter more than it appears.

American Airlines reportedly saved thousands of dollars by removing one olive from meals served across many flights. One olive seemed insignificant. Repeated thousands of times, it made a measurable difference. The same is true of our choices.

Your “one olive”

One small habit, responsibility, compromise, or act of obedience that may matter more than it appears.

My “one olive” is:

This is something I need to: ☐ Begin ☐ Continue ☐ Strengthen ☐ Remove ☐ Repair

Why does this matter?

My specific next step is:

I will begin on:

I will practice this:

☐ Daily ☐ Several times this week ☐ Weekly
☐ When the opportunity arises

What might get in the way?

How will I respond?

Who could encourage me?

SEVEN-DAY FAITHFULNESS PLAN

Practice One Small Step

Return to your “one olive” each day. Notice what helps, what hinders, and what God is teaching you.

DAY 1

Today's small act of faithfulness: _____

Did I follow through? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Not yet

What did I learn? _____

DAY 2

Today's small act of faithfulness: _____

Did I follow through? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Not yet

What did I learn? _____

DAY 3

Today's small act of faithfulness: _____

Did I follow through? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Not yet

What did I learn? _____

DAY 4

Today's small act of faithfulness: _____

Did I follow through? ☐ Yes ☐ Not yet

What did I learn? _____

DAY 5

Today's small act of faithfulness: _____

Did I follow through? ☐ Yes ☐ Not yet

What did I learn? _____

DAY 6

Today's small act of faithfulness: _____

Did I follow through? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Not yet

What did I learn? _____

DAY 7

Today's small act of faithfulness: _____

Did I follow through? ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Not yet

What did I learn? _____

Keep the goal realistic

The goal is not perfection. The goal is to practice one clear act of faithfulness and begin again when you miss it.

END-OF-WEEK REFLECTION What did this week reveal?

What changed during this week?

What was harder than I expected?

Where did I see God helping me?

What small act of faithfulness do I want to continue?

What is my next step?

PRAYER AND NEXT STEP

A Prayer for Faithfulness

Father, thank You for Your patience, mercy, and faithfulness toward me. Help me recognize the small responsibilities and opportunities You have already placed in my hands. Show me where I have been careless, distracted, or slow to obey. Give me strength to be faithful when no one is watching and when the task seems too small to matter. Help me take one clear step of obedience and continue walking with You one day at a time. In Jesus' name. Amen.

CONTINUE THE JOURNEY Put What You Read Into Practice

At Interactive Bible Studies, we create practical Bible studies, reflection guides, devotionals, and worksheets that help readers slow down, examine their lives, and take a clear next step with God.

Use this audit as a starting point. Return to it after several weeks and notice where God has helped you grow. You do not have to change everything at once.

Begin with one olive.

One habit.

One responsibility.

One act of obedience.

One faithful step at a time.
